Joanne Field Is a Bride in Virginia

J. P. Langdon Weds Daughter of Late Chicago Editor

Special to The New York Times

ARLINGTON, Va., May 14—

Miss Joanne Field was married to James Phillip Langdon at the Rock Spring Congregational Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John A. Bross of McLean and the late Marshall Field 4th of Chicago, who was chairman of Field Enterprises, Inc., and editor and publisher of The Chicago Sun-Times and The Chicago Daily News. Mr. Langdon is the son of Mrs. Robert Coward of Beech Haven, N. J., and the late John D. Langdon. The Rev. Sidney Lovitt performed the ceremony. The bride's stepfather gave her in marriage.

Wearing a princess style gown of alençon lace and a flowing floor-length tulle veil, the bride carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis.

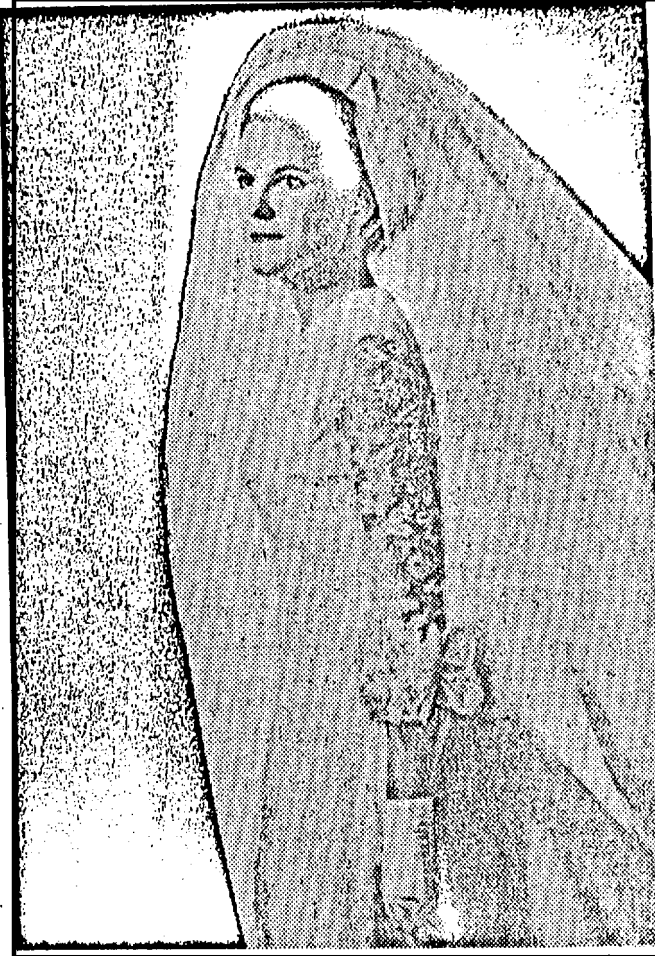

Her 10 attendants wore empire gowns of white embroidered organza over yellow silk with matching stoles. They carried bouquets of white daisies and blue cornflowers.

C.I.A. Officials Attend

The matron of honor was Mrs. Robert Frazier of McLean, the bride's stepsister. Miss Ingrid Anderson of Marblehead, Mass., was maid of honor. The bride's other attendants were her sister-in-law, Mrs. Marshall Field 6th; Mrs. John A. Bross Jr.; Mrs. George K. Spiel; Mrs. Joan Hamilton; Mrs. Harly Ryan, and the Misses Abra Prentice, Jane Barnes and Dorothy Langdon.

The bride's stepfather is a senior official with the Central Intelligence Agency. Several military and C.I.A. officials were among the 60 guests at the wedding ceremony. They included Adm. William Francis Raborn, U.S.N. retired, director of the C.I.A., and former C.I.A. directors Allen W. Dulles and John J. McCone, Deputy Defense Secretary and Mrs. Cyrus R. Vance also attended.

Chicagoans who flew to Virginia for the ceremony included

Mrs. James P. Langdon, formerly Miss Joanne Field

Bailey K. Howard, chairman of the board of the Field Enterprises Educational Corporation, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald McKellar. He is executive vice president of the corporation.

Reception Held in McLean

John D. Langdon was his brother's best man. Ushers were Marshall Field 5th (the bride's brother and assistant to the general manager of the newspaper division of Field Enterprises, Inc.), Robert B. Langdon, Thomas G. Langdon, Mr. Frazier, George K. Spiel, John A. Bross Jr., Raymond Larsen, Peter F. Bross, Robert Tiller and Robert Connelly.

A reception for 200 was held at the home of the bride's mother, 4501 Crest Lane, McLean. A bridal dinner was given last night at the F Street Club in Washington by Mrs. Diego Suarez and Mr. and Mrs. C. Tracy Barnes. Mrs. Suarez is the bride's grandmother; her grandfather is the late Marshall Field 3d of New York. The bride's maternal grandparents are the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Bass. Mr. Bass was Governor of New Hampshire.

The bride was graduated from Concord Academy, Concord, Mass., and Bradford Junior College. She made her debut in 1960 at the Washington debutante ball.

The bridegroom was graduated from Bedford Park Academy in New York and Iona College in New Rochelle, N. Y.

Following a wedding trip to Europe, the couple will live in Chicago, where Mr. Langdon is with Goodale & Bertman, an oil investment firm.
